Spring 1 Newsletter

Dear Parents/Carers

WELCOME back to Fox Class. We hope that you have enjoyed a well earned break over the half term

Fox class topics

Our topic this half term is Tickets Please (Going Places). We will be doing lots of investigating and comparing Ancient Greece to where we live now.

We will be learning about different types of transport and different locations around the world. We will be planning holidays in the UK and abroad and designing our own tickets for the different types of transport.

To continue with these topics at home you could try the following:

- ✚ Take photos of the different types of transport you use.
- ✚ Look at google maps to find where you live.
- ✚ Look at holiday brochures and leaflets together, with different children's activities.

English

Our topic in English this half term is 'Familiar settings'. We will be linking this to our topic, by learning about the story the Naughty Bus and all the different adventures he goes on.

Ideas to continue English at home:

- Design your own bus.
- Create your own naughty adventure.
- Go on a bus journey

Maths

In maths this term, our focus is measures we will be learning about how to measure length using standard and non standard measurements and identifying different sizes.

Topic key language

Key words that we are focusing on this term are:

Old, new, where, country, city, bus, plane, car, ship
